A GREAT BUZZ

There has been a great buzz around school this week with the start of our Leadership Academy and Advanced Learning Programme as well as the first Wednesday Enrichment sessions of the year.

Every child in Year 7 and Year 8 also received their free book this week as part of Book Buzz, a reading programme developed by the Book Trust. As part of the programme our students have been able to choose one free book to read and review—there's a list of 17 books to choose from and the favourites amongst Suthers School students were Amazing Animals from the Guinness World Records, The Trials of Apollo by Rick Riordan and Haunt: Dead Scared by Curtis Jobling (right). You can find out more about the programme and see a full list of the books available by clicking here.

And keep a look out next week for information about our 'Meet the Tutor' event for parents of Year 7s as well as information about how your child can get involved with our next Open Evening on Thursday 4 October from 18:00—20:00.

Bringing Día de los Muertos to life in Art

Year 8s have been developing their skills in blending oil pastels this week as part of their study of artworks inspired by the Mexican holiday Día de los Muertos (day of the dead), a multi-day public holiday dating back to the Sixteenth Century. Miss Din, our Art teacher, was very impressed by the level of control and the vibrant colours meant their creations were certainly full of life—well done Year 8! Great to see those with dragon-designing skills from last year taking the lead in demonstrating these techniques to others as well!

MACMILLAN COFFEE MORNING
@ the suthers school.

You are warmly invited to come and join us for an open morning. Have a look around, meet other parents, chat to staff and enjoy a cuppa (as well as a cake or twee!) in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support.
